

Report crime online

Your guide to the Calgary Police Service online report system

Did you know that you can report certain types of crimes to the Calgary Police Service online? When you use the CPS Citizen Online Police Report System, you can submit a report about a crime immediately and print a copy of the police report for free.

When you use the quick and easy online reporting system, it can help you by providing reports for your records. It also helps the police to identify and address crime trends in your area.

What can I report online?

The online reporting system currently takes reports about the following crimes, as long as their value is less than $5,000 (Canadian), there's no known suspect, and the incident happened within Calgary's city limits:

- Lost Property
- Theft
- Damage/Mischief to Property
- Theft from Vehicle
- Damage/Mischief to Vehicle

When should I call police instead?

- Emergencies (always call 9-1-1 for emergencies)
- Crimes where there's a known suspect
- Crimes where someone broke into your house or business
- Motor vehicle collisions
- Theft or attempted theft of a vehicle or vehicle license plate
- Theft or loss of a firearm
- Theft or loss of a passport, VISA immigration document, citizenship card or government-issued funds

Please report incidents like these by phone using the police general number at 403-266-1234, or in person at your local police district office.

How do I report a crime online?

To report crime online, go to www.calgarypolice.ca, and click on "Citizen Online Police Report System." Follow the screen prompts to fill in the information and submit your report. If you have a problem with the system, there's 24-hour support available at 403-206-8318.

When you're finished, you can print a copy of the police report to keep for your records. Police will review your case, and will contact you if needed.
